

The Secret School by Christina Mitrentse at Terra Extremitas

THURSDAY 7 AUGUST

Event: Terra Extremitas—The End of the Earth

Endzeit visions are an ever-remaining favourite among artists and fantasy roleplay aficionados alike. This large-scale spectacle, that sounds a bit like a wet dream for members of both groups, has it all: A mysterious evil, here called 'The Fiction', has taken over the world. There's a group of survivors hiding in a secluded spot, here called 'The Bulkhead'. And even UFOs. All this thought up and carried out by a large number of artists of all disciplines, and taking place at a fitting Endzeit location. (Sarah Gehrke) NDSM-werf, 20.00, €8. Until August 10.
